Inclusive leadership is defined as the capacity to manage and lead a heterogeneous group of people efficiently, while respecting their uniqueness in an empathetic, bias-free way. The creation of a truly inclusive organizational culture starts with the example set by your leadership team. This workshop provides key tools to enable leaders to intentionally create inclusive spaces for your diverse employees.

Learning objectives

- Why diversity and inclusion contributes to strong business performance
- Inclusive language principles
- Understanding bias
- Cultivating psychological safety
- Becoming a diversity and inclusion champion
- Employee support programs
