Presents

ACEC-SK Future Leaders Group Virtual Leadership Series

Featuring

Nick Wright, A.Sc.T

VP Marketing & Technology

ENGCOMP

Tuesday, April 11, 2023

12:00 PM - 1:00 PM

In Nick's career, he has participated in the heavy industrial sector in various capacities. From cutting pipe and preparing fittings in a welding shop to designing structural systems to negotiating complex contracts to helping grow a consulting firm, Nick has been fortunate to learn from many people and share what he knows with others.

In his current role of VP Marketing & Technology, Nick is responsible for all pursuits, business development, marketing strategies, contracts and technological infrastructure at Engcomp. He is an experienced Project Manager who has been responsible for engineering projects management and controls from $1K to $3M in fees. He was also responsible for the implementation and management of all information systems, CAD standards and drawing review. Nick is an active member of his community, serving on many boards including his current role of Chair of the ACEC-SK Board of Directors.

Open to all Young Professionals and Students
